

Introducing Ohio's hiVelocity

hiVelocity online magazine captures the transformation of Ohio: a place where innovation and creativity are nurtured, where new companies are being formed every day, and where Ohio's best and brightest are choosing to stay and be a central part of this growth.

Every other week, our editorial team writes original stories, captures unique images with photographs and videos, and pulls together news from around the globe about Ohio. With depth, energy, and a strong voice, we give readers more reasons to take a closer look at Ohio.

With fresh content updated regularly, we invite you to receive your bi-weekly free issue of this new e-zine and web site at www.hiVelocitymedia.com.

Become a fan on Facebook/hiVelocity, follow us on Twitter (@hiVelocitycom), and look for our team around the state covering what's happening next in Ohio.
